

Local Bahá'í's and the Arts

idered acts of worship."

Writings of Abdu'l-Baha, p. 144

Upcoming Events

News Releases!

March 2007

Bahá'í artist, Mrs. Kathlene Fatabi is currently by some of her work on the "Trinidad and Tobago

Prints are available for $100.00 unframed

prints are available for $200.00. You may contact

Proclaiming the Faith Through the Arts

~ The Bahá'í Teachings & resource materials

The musician's art is among those arts worthy of the highest (Abdu'l-Baha, Selections from the Writings of Abdu'l-Baha)

praise, and it moveth the hearts

for in accordance with the divine teachings the acquisition (Abdu'l-Baha, Selections from the Writings of Abdu'l-Baha,)

of sciences and the perfection of

Through it sciences and arts will be spread among the nations, (Abdu'l-Baha, The Promulgation of Universal Peace)

and it will prove to be the me

You have excelled in the use of the arts for the proclamation, (The Universal House of Justice, Ridvan 153, 1996 - Europe)

expansion and consolidation

the arts are powerful instruments to serve the Cause, arts (Compilations, The Importance of the Arts in Promoting the

which in time will have their Bahá' Faith)

Featured Bahá'í artistes are:

Navid Lancaster	Musician/Sound Engineer
Kathleen Farabi	Artist
Joel Caverly	Musician
Lawrence Coward	Singer/Songwriter
Errol Elborne	Singer/Choir Master
Dhanika Burris	Singer
Rhonda Holder	Singer/Songwriter

Photo Album ~ C oming Soon
Listen to some of the audio files produced by our artistes
Buy our work ~ Visit the Shop

Back to Top

You are visitor number: