

Below is an article written by Freddie Kisson of the Trinidad and Tobago Newsday newspapers on Saturday June 5th, 2010 about our dearly loved Bahai friend and latest caretaker

" Caverly says goodbye FREDDIE KISSOON Saturday, June 5 2010 One of

Joel Caverly, a blue-eyed Caucasian, from Massachusetts met his wife-to-be, Edna, an Afro- American

Mizra Husayn Ali 1817-92 who spent most of his life in prison, founded the Baha'i religion in 1863. Their

In our year of Independence 1962, Caverly came to Trinidad for the first time as a member of the music

I met Joel in November 1970 when he was posted to St James as the music teacher. He was successful

While speaking to my group, he told us that one day his wife was very displeased when someone called

When I was asked by Dale Kolasingh to televise more episodes of "Calabash Alley", I wrote my own theme

I also called on him to teach the ten actors in my play Shakespeare's Dream, to sing the Elizabethan folk

Past pupils of St James Secondary such as soca artistes Destra Garcia and Maximus Dan, gospel singers

When the pan tuner told the pannist he had come to tune his tenor-pan, the pan player said he did not s